RETURN TO THE WILDWOOD? IS REWILDING THE FUTURE FOR DARTMOOR?

THE DARTMOOR SOCIETY PUBLIC DEBATE

SATURDAY 29 OCTOBER 2016 10am-5pm

MELDON VILLAGE HALL EX20 4LU.

(SX 560924, 0.5km S of A30, near Okehampton)

There are many who advocate 'rewilding' our uplands, but many others are strongly opposed.

How might this affect existing wildlife and landscape features on Dartmoor, as well as the people who live and work on the moor and all those who enjoy it and are inspired by it?

This Debate, open to all, will be chaired by Matthew Kelly, Professor of History at Northumbria University, and author of Quartz and Feldspar: Dartmoor - A British Landscape in Modern Times (2015).

Advance booking is required (by Friday 21st October) You can book places for this event on the Dartmoor Society website www.dartmoorsociety.com/events

The cost is £20 non-members & £17 members, including Morning Coffee, Buffet Lunch & Afternoon Tea.

Speakers:
Robert Cook; Lecturer in Education
for Sustainability, Plymouth
University
